

Dinner Date

Appetizer

Mary bakes pies, fabulous pies, and she's invited Daniel to dinner.

Daniel can't believe his luck – Mary is beautiful and she cooks just like his mother! Watch as a glamorous and deadly femme fatale dupes yet another unwitting victim, or should we say, ingredient?

Dinner Date is a highly entertaining short film with a deliciously messy ending. It delivers its story in a horrifically tongue-in-cheek style, all to a delightful dinner jazz soundtrack.

Entree

Studio Moraine creates films with a unique flavor. They are not afraid to tackle any subject and consider themselves an alternative to 'old school' production houses. They believe in equal opportunities for all filmmakers and lovers of cinema, and ask only two things of their partners: a passion for film excellence and the technical skills to achieve it. Studio Moraine is synonymous with quirky characters in strange worlds living the dream.

Christel Soriano oozes seductive charm as Mary. This is her first starring role in a film.

Neil Baker wrote, produced and starred (as Neio Biker) in Dinner Date. He has several shorts and features due for release in 2006.

Paul Gill directed the short. He also has several shorts and features under his belt and many more to come next year.
